

Bristol Orienteering Klub (BOK)

Code of Conduct for Officials and Volunteers

Officials and volunteers must:

- Help participants or parents of juniors to understand whether activities are appropriate to their age, experience and ability.
- Consider the well-being and safety of participants at all events including training and coaching.
- Develop an appropriate working relationship with juniors who take part in club activities, based on mutual trust and respect.
- Promote the positive aspects of the sport, e.g. fair play.
- Display high standards of behaviour.
- Follow the guidelines laid down in British Orienteering's Code of Conduct.
- Hold the appropriate qualifications in conjunction with British Orienteering regulations.
- Not exert influence over performers to obtain personal benefit or reward.
- Not condone rule violations or the use of prohibited substances.
